Terms & conditions

1. The ordering customer and Thermik Verlag contract the publication of an ad. This appointment has to be in written form, but can also be concluded via mail, telephone or fax in exceptional cases. An advertising order may contain one or more ads.
2. Ads are to be booked by the ordering customer until order deadline; the latest day of delivery for printer's copies is the artwork deadline. Ads can be cancelled until order deadline. If this cancellation leads to a difference in granted discounts the cancelling party is charged the difference. Particular insertions such as inner or outer coverpages cannot be cancelled.
3. The publishing house reserves the right to reject orders due to content, provenience or technical form. Rejection is immediately communicated to the ordering party in written form.
4. The ordering customer is responsible for his ad to be discernible as an ad, further for legality and correctness of content. Ads not discernible as ads for design reasons are marked „Anzeige“ (advert) by the publishing house.
5. Delivery of ads must be in digital form and ready to print. Technical specification can be found in our media data. A colour-binding proof has to be enclosed.
6. Placement of ads is made best possible. There is no entitlement concerning particular placement inside the magazine except for inner or outer cover-pages.
7. The publishing house ensures – dependent from quality of printer's copies – the printing quality common for the print of the entire magazine.
8. In case of considerable insufficiency in the responsibility of the publishing house the customer receives a price-reduction. Deviations in colour due to printing technique are not regarded as considerable. Claims must be made within four weeks after invoice receipt.
9. The invoice is to be paid within 14 days after invoice receipt without trade discount. The publishing house reserves the right to demand advance payment and to link the publication of an ad to advance payment and/or settlement of eventual open accounts.
10. Claims for damages against the publishing house and it's employees are excluded.
11. Place of fulfilment and court of jurisdiction are the publishing house's head office in A-4600 Wels, Austria.
